

Inventory

The inventory module delivers powerful tools and comprehensive reports you need to keep a strict control over your inventory, whether you need multi-warehousing or not. By monitoring your stock level precisely, you can take advantage of Just-in-Time warehousing, and thus reduce your holding costs.

This module offers great features such as item assemblies and kits –whereas the module adjusts the components quantity on hand automatically. Use this module also to update or modify item prices globally or individually; make inventory transfers, adjustments; group items by category and sub-category; create and unlimited number of price levels, etc.

FEATURES AT A GLANCE

- Lets you modify the item code without altering related data
- Handles barcodes (internal-external)
- Allows an unlimited number of items and price levels
- Keeps track of item location
- Manages your inventory in several warehouses
- Manages items in consignment
- Manages sales promotion (special offers)
- Lets you build kits and item assembly (MRP)
- Ensures a better inventory control with sales and purchase factors
- Lets you adjust an item's quantity on hand, average and last cost on-the-fly
- Handles replacement items
- Lets you add long descriptions and pictures to each item
- Lets you group items by category

REPORTS AVAILABLE

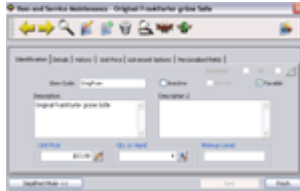

- Item Physical Count List
- Item List, Price List
- Stock Status
- Inventory Valuation
- Items/Services Transaction History Report

SCREENSHOTS

Item Assembly

The Dynacom solution enables you to build item assemblies from components and keep track of both components and the assembled items.

Item Maintenance

This maintenance is used to update items and services, i.e. to create, modify, search and delete items and services, but also kits and item assemblies. From this window you can print a list of items and services.

Inventory Valuation

This report provides valuable information on the flow of items.